Re: Request for Extension of April 1, 2013 Deadline
Bluestone v. Nichia, Case No. 3:12-cv-00059-SI

Dear Judge Illston:

I write on behalf of third-party Thomson Licensing, LLC (“Thomas”) to request a short, unopposed extension of the April 1, 2013 deadline (Document No. 272) to file materials in support of the parties’ motion to seal confidential materials in the Bluestone v. Nichia matter.

Thomson learned yesterday that its confidential materials (along with those of other third parties, Nichia, and Bluestone) were submitted in connection with the parties’ briefing on a motion for standing, and that the Court had denied the parties’ motion to seal. The parties have requested that Thomson prepare a declaration regarding the confidentiality of its materials. Thomson is not a party to the litigation, and having just been made aware of the filing of its confidential materials yesterday, needs additional time to review the Thomson materials (which total over four hundred pages) and prepare any necessary declarations.

Accordingly, Thomson respectfully requests that the Court extend the April 1, 2013 deadline to April 8, 2013 to give Thomson sufficient time to review the documents and prepare any necessary declarations. Counsel for Bluestone and Nichia do not oppose Thomson’s request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Shane Brun
